Membership Agreement Terms

Membership Agreement Terms

Eligibility for NARI membership requires that the company be actively engaged in the remodeling industry for at least one full year prior to application. Applicants must conduct their business in compliance with the NARI Code of Ethics.

NARI Code of Ethics

Each member of the National Association of the Remodeling Industry agrees to comply with the NARI bylaws and is pledged to observe high standards of honesty, integrity and responsibility in the conduct of business:

- By promoting in good faith only those products and services which are known to be functionally and economically sound, and which are known to be consistent with objective standards of health and safety
- By making all advertising and sales promotion factually accurate, avoiding those practices which tend to mislead or deceive the customer
- By writing all contracts and warranties such that they comply with federal, state and local laws
- By promptly acknowledging and taking appropriate action on all customer complaints
- By refraining from any act intended to restrain trade or suppress competition
- By attaining and retaining insurance as required by federal, state and local authorities
- By attaining and retaining licensing and/or registration as required by federal, state and local authorities
- By taking appropriate action to preserve the health and safety of employees, trade contractors, clients and the public.

Acknowledgement

I have reviewed the information contained in this membership application and confirm that this information is correct to the best of my knowledge. I attest that I am in compliance with the Code of Ethics printed herein and agree to comply with the Bylaws and Code of Ethics of the Association in the future.
